DISCOUNTS ON CEB PRODUCTS NOW AVAILABLE TO PARALEGALS

OAKLAND, CALIF. — Continuing Education of the Bar and the California Alliance of Paralegal Associations have reached an agreement to offer discount packages on CEB products to paralegals who are members of CAPA. These packages, effective immediately, give paralegals generous discounts on CEB's live CLE programs, Program Passports, books, and Action Guides.

“This is a great boon for our members and their employers,” says CAPA President Stacey Hunt, CLA, CAS. “Now that paralegals must meet MCLE requirements under the law [Bus.& Prof. Code §6450], CAPA is looking for ways to help its members get those credits. CEB is going to help relieve some of that financial burden by lowering its rates.”

“We are looking forward to introducing CAPA member paralegals to the many resources available to them at CEB,” says CEB Director Pamela Jester. As part of the agreement, CEB will be creating a special web page for CAPA-affiliated paralegals. This web page will showcase upcoming CLE courses of interest to paralegals and will contain links to other products and services available at CEB's main web site at ceb.com.

Business & Professions Code section 6450, et.seq., which took effect January 1, 2001, requires that paralegals obtain four hours of continuing education every two years in legal ethics and four hours every three years in general law or a specialized area of the law.
