What is it all about?

Are you the one sitting in the "Hot Seat"? Do you plan to utilize technology in the courtroom for your next trial? If so, this is the conference you won't want to miss.

The Courtroom Presentation Conference (CPC) has been created to provide insight, ideas, and education for presenting in the courtroom. The faculty is comprised of the most experienced and well-known professionals in the area of trial presentation and courtroom technology in the country. This information-packed session will benefit paralegals, attorneys, litigation support professionals and trial presentation consultants.

The speakers of this conference will discuss and demonstrate state-of-the-art, trial-proven techniques and technologies within the industry. Our ultimate goal is to provide education on the best practices and techniques of trial presentation in an effort to reduce stress for trial teams taking technology into trial.

Schedule

We've packed in a lot of information in a short amount of time! We think of this schedule as a 1 day conference on Thursday. And a BONUS training day on Friday morning. Here's a summary of what we will cover:

Day One, Thursday. We will cover just about everything when getting ready for trial. Topics will include trial prep, software, logistics and video depositions. If you can only make it for one day, this would be the one.

Day Two, Friday. Training Day. New to the CPC. Get your ideas on Thursday and get some training on Friday. CPC will be providing half day training break out sessions. We will have final training sessions announced soon, but our plans start off with PowerPoint, trial presentation software's and how to setup a courtroom.
