“2015 POLYGRAPH – IF IT’S NOT ADMISSIBLE, WHY BOTHER?”

Jack Trimarco is an internationally known, highly experienced and respected expert polygraph examiner, also known as a forensic psycho-physiologist. For almost 21 years Mr. Trimarco served as a Special Agent for the F.B.I. including program manager for the F.B.I. Polygraph (lie detection) Unit at the Los Angeles Field Office from 1990 until his retirement in 1998. He also served as Inspector General for the United States Department of Energy Polygraph Program between 2000 and 2002. Following his training with the Department of Defense and the F.B.I. as a polygraph / lie detection expert he has conducted more than 3,500 polygraph tests throughout the world and is a California State Private Investigator (#20970).

A few high profile cases where Mr. Trimarco consulted or served as the polygraph examiner:

Oklahoma City Bombing; "Unabomber" investigation; Dodger Stadium, opening day parking lot assault; Campaign contributions to the Democratic National Committee investigation; Dr. Peter Lee espionage case; Marquisha Candler kidnap/murder case; Assassination of DEA Agent Enrique Camarena in Mexico; Dr. Wen Ho Lee espionage case; Jewish Defense League ODEH bombing death; 1993 World Trade Center Bombing; Whitewater Investigation; Cordoba vs. the United States; and the Jose Canseco steroid allegations.
